Department of Archæology,

Mysore, ...5th July 1948..... 194

407 E

To

The Education Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that this Department undertakes scientific research and the members are required to travel throughout the State. While the Department was under the University i.e., from the year 1923 to 1944 all claims of mileage for less than 20 miles a day ~~travelled~~ in respect of the non-gazetted members of this Department were being allowed in lieu of Daily Allowances in consideration of the fact that the D.A. was not sufficient to cover their travelling expenses. The Comptroller to the Government of Mysore has now pointed out in his letter No.603/T.A. dated 28th June 1948 that orders of Government are necessary to exempt the non-gazetted officers of this Department from the operation of the Article 523 M.S.R. Under the circumstances I request you to be so good as to grant the non-gazetted officers of this Department the necessary exemption from the articles as has been done ~~obtained~~ in the case of the Fieldmen of The Agricultural Department. (Vide G.O.No.D.804/250-31-2 dated 22nd August 1932.)

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

L. Narasimhachar
